The Hallberg-Rassy 49 is a true blue water cruising classic, a superb boat with extended cruising capability, also suitable for world cruises, or for living aboard for extended periods of time. This is the ideal combination of robust construction, unusual comfort both on deck and below deck, and excellent handling characteristics at all points of sail.

The attractive selling price of this particular classic ketch is due to her condition which has seen poor maintenance over the last three years due to the owner's health issues. After a thorough investigation and considering that the boat has been ashore for approximately three years it is our opinion that the selling price is adequate with the condition of the vessel.
